

A New IIC Service Provider for Sussex County!

All Masters and Clinical Level clinicians have multiple years of experience working with...

- Children and youth in Sussex county
- Children and youth in crisis
- Children and youth in the in-home setting
- Culturally, ethnically, spiritually, and economically diverse populations
- Individuals, families, and groups

Our clinicians have specialized training in various areas including:

- Anxiety
- Depression
- Self-injury
- Domestic violence
- Family conflict
- Trauma
- Substance abuse
- Children and youth involved with DCP&P
- Children and youth involved in the foster care system
- Adoption

Interventions our clinicians use to treat our clients include:

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Solution-Focused Brief Therapy
- Play Therapy
- Bowenian Family Therapy
- Structural Family Therapy
- Strengths-Based Interventions

For more information and referrals, call: 862-432-3453

About the owner: Chrissy Koenig-Webber, LCSW has spent her entire career working with the children and youth of Sussex County in various capacities including: in a non-profit child welfare agency, mental health clinic, on a child study team member at a local elementary school, and as an adjunct psychology and sociology professor at nearby colleges.