This presentation focuses on the critical but limited role agencies have in the suicide prevention process with emphasis on the following:

- Empowering youth agency staff and volunteers through education and awareness
- Understanding warning signs & risk factors for teen suicide
- Reviewing strategies for dealing with at-risk youth and communicating concern with their parents
- Local resources
- Policy and protocol

Open to the whole community!
Light refreshments will be provided.

The Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide is a non-profit community organization dedicated to increasing awareness and reducing the stigma of suicide through specialized training programs and outreach resources that empower teens, parents and educational leaders with the emotional guidance and skills needed to help those at risk of suicide and build a life of resiliency.
